STEP 4: Review Award Classifications:

Diversity Award— annually awarded to businesses or individuals who have shown exemplary contributions in implementing policies, procedures and/or programs that enhance diversity in the Janesville community.

Community Improvement Award—annually awarded to businesses or individuals who have demonstrated exemplary contributions to the well being of the Janesville community.

Goodwill Ambassador of the Year Award—annually awarded to an individual who has demonstrated exemplary representation of the business community. This individual has been a positive public relations liaison for Forward Janesville at ribbon cuttings, special events and networking sessions. The individual has also been involved through extra committee work and projects. The Ambassador of the Year is nominated by his or her peer Goodwill Ambassadors for the award.

Volunteer of the Year Award—annually awarded to an individual who has gone the extra mile in providing voluntary assistance to the Forward Janesville staff, committees, events and/or community projects.

Educator of the Year Award—awarded to an individual or group who has actively encouraged partnerships between the business and education communities. The nominee utilizes business resources within the community and works to adapt curriculum to align with the industry standards. Training, business partnerships and advocacy for the educational system are key roles that this individual undertakes.

Entrepreneur of the Year Award— annually awarded to an individual who has exemplified leadership and the entrepreneurial spirit in making their ideas, and ultimately their business a success. The nominee must be a majority owner and/or operation head of an independently owned profit-making business enterprise that has less than 50 employees.

Business of the Year Award (50 or less employees)—awarded to a business who recognizes that business success and community involvement go hand in hand. The award is to recognize the exemplary customer service, product knowledge, community support and professionalism that makes their business not only a profitable success, but a great asset to the Janesville community.

Business of the Year Award (50+ employees)—annually awarded to a business who recognizes that business success and community involvement are two vital components of a business strategy. The award is to recognize the exemplary customer service, product knowledge, community support and professionalism that makes their business a financial success, but also an asset to our local community.

Lifetime Achievement Award—annually honors an individual, who over the course of several years, has made a true difference in our community, and also the Janesville business community. Janesville is a better place because the honoree of the Lifetime Achievement Award has been active, engaged and involved in various initiatives that embrace the idea of community commitment...by combining resources, talents and assets, the honoree believes that together, we can overcome obstacles and continually improve our community.
